

S.F. 1 - Quiz p.25

Name_____

1. Considered the model of the Renaissance Man, this Italian artist and scientist of Florence painted the "Mona Lisa," probably the most famous painting in the world.
2. This political leader of Florence was similar to Pericles of ancient Athens. He encouraged great artists and thinkers to come to his city.
3. Another artist from Florence is considered one of the greatest artists of all time. As a young man during the Renaissance, he sculpted the "David" in Florence and later painted the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel in Rome.
4. This diplomat from Florence wrote books about war and politics, the most famous of which is The Prince.
5. Possibly the world's smallest country, this is officially an independent nation within the city of Rome. It is home to the Roman Catholic Church and the Pope.
6. This Italian city is considered the birthplace of the Renaissance.

S.F. 1 - Quiz p.26

Name_____

1. The Protestant branch of Christianity was born when this German monk nailed his "95 Theses" to the door of a Catholic Church.
2. He was one of the first people to use a telescope. With his telescope, he made discoveries that told him the Earth was not the center of the universe. Who was this early astronomer?
3. Reading and writing became much more widespread after this man used metal movable type to print books.
4. He loved Ann Boleyn, married her, and had her executed less than three years later. In the process, he made himself head of the Christian church in England instead of the pope.
5. What is the name of a movement that began as an effort to reform the Roman Catholic Church, but ended in the creation of the Protestant branch of Christianity? This movement gave some rulers a handy excuse to limit the power of the Catholic Church.
6. Perhaps the greatest writer in the English language, this man wrote plays which demonstrated the Renaissance interest in the classical world of ancient times.