

S.F. 2 - Quiz p. 19

Name_____

1. This is the word invented after World War II to describe the intentional and systematic destruction of an entire racial or cultural group.
2. What act was Hitler's repeat of the same mistake made by Napoleon over a century earlier?
3. This was the home of the U.S. Pacific Fleet during WW II and it was considered safe from enemy attack until December 7, 1941, a "date which will live in infamy."
4. This is the name given to Hitler's murder of three-quarters of the Jews of Europe, six million people.
5. This term means cutting off trade with a foreign country.

S.F. 2 - Quiz p. 20

Name_____

1. President Franklin Roosevelt urged Americans to increase production of goods to help the Allies during World War II. What did President Roosevelt ask America to become?

2. What city and what country saw the first use of an atomic weapon in warfare?

3. Ordinary men and women in countries occupied by the Nazis lived dangerous secret lives trying to damage Nazi facilities, or by spying on Nazis, or killing German officials. What was this anti-Nazi movement conducted by civilians during World War II?

4. Late in World War II, the Allies launched this massive attack across the English Channel; it was meant to be the beginning of the final push toward Germany.

5. This is the popular name for the day when the Allies launched their huge invasion of Northern France which was meant to be the beginning of the final push toward Germany. On this day countless American soldiers died in the water before reaching Omaha Beach.