

Friend or Foe Country Questions

Choose a person for the following positions and record it below.

- Secretary of State. Must sign all agreements.
- Remainder are Ambassadors to be the negotiators. Two ambassadors will be designated at a time. Halfway through the simulation there will be a switch of ambassadors. Therefore, everyone must be involved!

Only TWO Ambassadors may visit other groups to make deals.

At the end, it will be the Secretary of State who delivers any message or proposal from his/her country to the general body (entire class) of states.

There are blank proposal forms—be safe, get all agreements in writing!!!

Secretary of State: _____

Ambassador #1: _____

Ambassador #2: _____

Ambassador #3: _____

Ambassador #4: _____

Part A:

Before you can start the game, you MUST answer the following questions!

1. Which two countries have a dispute over territory not on the map?
2. What are Morovia and Yorkton arguing over?
3. What are Yorkton and Penland arguing over?
4. How did Almanar gain its independence?
5. Why has Caldonia stayed out of the arguments?
6. Who has the most powerful Army?
7. Who has the most powerful Navy?
8. What is Sandia's internal problem?
9. What has Sandia done for its Army?
10. What military back-up does Morovia have?

Part: B

Answer the following questions from your country's confidential information.

1. What is the name of your country?
2. What countries border your country?

Assign # _____ Name _____ Due Date _____ Pts _____

3. Describe your Army in both size and quality.
4. Describe your Navy in both size and quality.
5. Who are your Allies in Fact?
6. Who could be potential Allies?
7. Who are your Enemies in Fact?
8. Who could be potential Enemies?
9. What are your country's strengths?
10. What are your country's weaknesses?
11. What is the greatest threat to your country?
12. How can you prevent this threat from happening?
13. Write out your strategy for survival. Remember, it may NOT be in your best interest to go to war!